

David Esteban Tenor

Alste & Mödersheim

Italo-Ecuadorian tenor David Esteban joined the ensemble of Theater Krefeld Mönchengladbach in the autumn 2018. His repertoire there includes Don José/ Carmen, Chevalier de la Force/ Les dialogues des Carmélites, Ismaele/ Nabucco, Duca/ Rigoletto, Prince/ Rusalka, Tamino/ Die Zauberflöte, Orpheus/ Orpheus in der Unterwelt, Laertes/ Hamlet, Simpleton/ Boris Godunov, Narraboth/ Salome, Tenor/ Meisterklasse and Kasimir Babylas/ Salon Pitzelberger.

David Esteban sang Flavio/ Norma and Abdallo/ Nabucco as a member of the Centro de Perfeccionamento Placido Domingo at the Palau de les Arts in Valencia. During his studies in Stuttgart he appeared as Duca/ Rigoletto at the Wilhelma Theater.

He performed Don José/ Carmen with Kammeroper Schloss Rheinsberg, in the Auditorio de Zaragoza and at the Tirana National Theatre and made his role debut as Rodolfo/ La Bohème in Stadthalle Balingen. In 2019 he performed Tamino/ Die Zauberflöte in Busan as well as Alfredo/ La Traviata and Edgardo/ Lucia di Lammermoor at the Ulsan Arts Centre in South Korea.

In concert David Esteban has sung Bruckner's Te Deum at Liederhalle Stuttgart, Verdi's Requiem in Stuttgart as well as Rossini's Petite Messe Solennelle in Stuttgart, Bergamo and Pavia. Last season and again this season he is appearing in opera gala concerts in Krefeld and Mönchengladbach.

David Esteban received his Bachelor's degree at the Conservatory in Naples, Italy, and was a member of the Centro de Perfeccionamento Placido Domingo in Valencia in 2014/2015. He has obtained a Master's degree from the Conservatory of Valencia and from the Opernschule Stuttgart, Germany.

updated August 2021